

PENNSYLVANIA WOMEN'S AGRICULTURAL NETWORK PRESENTS
TRACTOR MAINTENANCE WORKSHOP

AUGUST 26, 2009

10:00 A.M.—3:00 P.M.

MONROE COUNTY

JOSIE PORTER FARM

1377A CHERRY VALLEY ROAD
STROUDSBURG, PA 18360

Doug Schaufler, Senior Project Associate with Penn State's Farm Services, will provide a step-by-step demonstration for maintaining your tillers and farm tractors.

10:00 a.m. Welcome & Introductions

10:15 a.m.

- 2- and 4-stroke cycle engine maintenance
- Differences between 2 and 4 stroke engines
- Air filter cleaning/changing
- Fuel filter changing
- Oil and oil filter changing

Noon: Lunch (included with registration fee)

1:00 p.m.

- Safety system maintenance
- Oil filter and oil change
- Differences between gasoline & diesel engines
- Ignition system maintenance
- Fuel system maintenance
- Hydraulic system/transmission maintenance
- Air system maintenance
- Tire maintenance
- Lighting maintenance

2:30 p.m: Evaluation

3:00 p.m.: Adjourn

Online Registration available:

<http://wagn.cas.psu.edu/2009-06Registration.cfm>

For additional details, contact:

Linda Moist at lsm9@psu.edu or 814-865-7031

Registration Fee:

$15 includes lunch

All are welcome to participate in events sponsored by the Pennsylvania Women's Agricultural Network

Directions to Josie Porter Farm available at:

<http://www.cherryvalleycsa.com/?itemCategory=29756&siteid=203&priorId=0&pid=0>

Visit Josie Porter Farm on the Web at:

<http://www.cherryvalleycsa.com/>

College of Agricultural Sciences

Pennsylvania Women's Agricultural Network is a partnership of Penn State Cooperative Extension & Outreach, Penn State College of Agricultural Sciences, PA Association for Sustainable Agriculture, PA Certified Organic, PA Department of Agriculture, PA Department of Environmental Protection, Natural Resources Conservation Service, and The Rodale Institute